...RESPONDENTS

Petition under Article 226 of the constitution of India praying that in the circumstances stated in the Affidavit filed herein the High Court will be pleased to pass an order or direction or writ under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, more particularly one in the nature of writ of mandamus declaring the action of the respondents in issuing the election notification dated 27-11-2000 to hold elections to the Education Committee of the ZPHS, Pallerla, Atmakur Mandal, Nalgonda District, during the subsistence of the elected body as bad, illegal, arbitrary and against the principles of natural justice and consequently set aside the election notification dated 27-11-2000 insofar as it relates to the conducting of election to the Education Committee of ZPHS, Pallerla, Atmakur Mandal, Nalgonda District.

O R D E R :

Petitioner was elected as Chairman of the Education Committee of Zilla Parishad High School, Pallerla, Atmakur Mandal, Nalgonda District, on 28-4-1999 for a period of two years. Even before the term is expired, it appears, the second respondent issued a notification on 27-11-2000 proposing elections to the Education Committee. The petitioner assails the same in this writ petition. This Court while admitting the writ petition, passed interim orders directing the respondents to consider the representation of the petitioner.

It is brought to my notice by the learned Assistant Government Pleader for School Education that the term of the Education Committee is one year, and therefore, election notification was issued. Be that as it is, even assuming that the petitioner was elected for a period of two years, the same has expired, and therefore, nothing remains to be adjudicated in this writ petition.

The writ petition is accordingly dismissed as infructuous. No costs.
